THE DUTCH GARDEN IN SPRING JIGSAW PUZZLE

Here, just in time for Christmas, is our newest jigsaw. The picture of tulips in the formal garden was taken by our editor, Joy Puritz. Longer standing members will remember our previous jigsaw puzzles with pictures of the Kyoto Garden and a Holland Park peacock. Like them, this is produced specially for the Friends by Wentworth in good quality wood, and is fiendishly difficult. Do not be misled by the comparatively small number of pieces, 250, and the size, 360mm x 250mm, into thinking this is suitable for children. It contains a number of 'whimsies': pieces of unconventional shape. Also, although the edges of the puzzle are straight, some of the edge pieces do not have a straight edge. That is a conundrum in itself. In total, it provides an intriguing joint occupation for a family group or a happy mind-stretcher for hours on your own.

The price is only £20: very reasonable for a product of this quality. Please order it using the order form on the other side of this sheet.
